Explanations

The city of Bad Kreuznach charges a guest contribution of € 3.50 per night for guests who stay in Bad Kreuznach without being registered as having their main residence in the town. These previously mentioned fee is collected from businesses that provide accommodation to guests in return for payment.

Section 4 of the "Statutes on the Levying of a Guest Contribution by the Town of Bad Kreuznach" stipulates:

§ 4 Contribution exemptions apply in the following cases

(1) Persons are not liable to pay a contribution in accordance with § Section 12 of the Rhineland-Palatinate Municipal Tax Act

a) who are staying in the city area for educational or vocational training purposes and
b) who are in the city area for a temporary visit to relatives without payment of a fee without payment of a fee.

(2) The following are exempt from paying the guest contribution

a) Children up to the age of 18,
b) Participants in youth sports and youth leisure events, including their supervisors, organized by local clubs for the duration of the event,
c) bedridden patients or other sick persons who are unable to leave their accommodation,
d) severely disabled persons with a degree of disability of at least 80%, if the degree of disability is proven by a certificate from a public health officer, a severely disabled person's pass or a pension certificate
e) persons accompanying severely disabled persons with a degree of disability of at least 80%, if the
the need for accompaniment is proven by a medical certificate from a public health officer.

(3) The requirements for exemption must be proven by the entitled persons on the day of their arrival by means of appropriate identification or other suitable documents. Proof must be provided using the form "Declaration of exemption from guest contribution" provided by the town of Bad Kreuznach and must be confirmed by the entitled person with his signature. If the inspection reveals that no proof of the reason for exemption has been provided or that no reason for exemption in accordance with the statutes is given, this may result in additional claims against the guest.
